

Office of Personnel Management

§ 317.603

(i) Procedures. Written reasons must be provided for any recommendation or decision to conditionally recertify or to not recertify a career appointee.

(j) Agency responsibilities. Each agency that has career appointees subject to recertification:

(1) Shall develop written recertification procedures in consultation with its career appointees, shall have the procedures reviewed and approved by OPM before the recertification process is initiated, and shall provide its senior executives and OPM a copy of the final procedures upon issuance and upon any change;

(2) Shall provide for a program, under guidelines issued by OPM, to train its executives who supervise SES career personnel, and members of Performance Review Boards who will be making recertification recommendations, in the objectives and procedures of the recertification process;

(3) Shall maintain such records as OPM may require;

(4) Shall report to OPM such information as OPM may request relating to recertification actions or the training of SES supervisors; and

(5) Shall take such corrective action as may be directed by OPM if OPM finds that the agency's written procedures, or any actions taken by the agency, are contrary to law or regulation.

Subpart F—Noncareer and Limited Appointments

SOURCE: 45 FR 62414, Sept. 19, 1980, unless otherwise noted.

§ 317.601 Authorization.

(a) An agency may make a noncareer or limited appointment only to a general position.

(b) Each use of a noncareer appointment authority must be approved individually by the Office of Personnel Management, and the authority reverts to the Office upon departure of the incumbent, unless otherwise provided by the Office.

(c) Use of a limited appointment authority is subject to the conditions in this paragraph.

(1) Agencies are provided a pool of limited appointment authorities equal to 3 percent of their Senior Executive Service (SES) position allocation, or one authority, whichever is greater. An agency may use the pool to make a limited appointment only of an individual who has a career or career-conditional appointment (or an appointment of equivalent tenure) in a permanent civil service position outside the SES. If necessary, the Office of Personnel Management may suspend use of the pool authority.

(2) Each use of a limited appointment authority other than under paragraph (c)(1) of this section must be approved individually by the Office, and the authority reverts to the Office upon departure of the incumbent, unless otherwise provided by the Office.

[60 FR 6386, Feb. 2, 1995, as amended at 65 FR 33741, May 25, 2000]

§ 317.602 Conditions of a limited appointment.

(a) Appointments authorized under this provision may be deemed provisional appointments for purposes of the regulations set out in parts 831, 842, 870, and 890 of this chapter if they meet the criteria set out in §§ 316.401 and 316.403 of this chapter.

(b) A limited appointment is not renewable. If an agency initially made the appointment for less than the maximum period authorized by the Office of Personnel Management, however, the agency may extend the appointment to the maximum period without the approval of the Office. The Office must be notified of the extension.

(c) A limited term or limited emergency appointee may not be appointed to, or continue to hold, a position under such an appointment if, within the preceding 48 months, the individual has served more than 36 months, in the aggregate, under any combination of limited term and limited emergency appointments.
